SPACE CITY

HOUSTON, TX

Exploring Houston, without an itinerary, resulted in marvelous meals and delicious drinks throughout the inner loop. There isn't one particular "neighborhood" I would strongly recommend but I have several specific restaurants I would not miss!

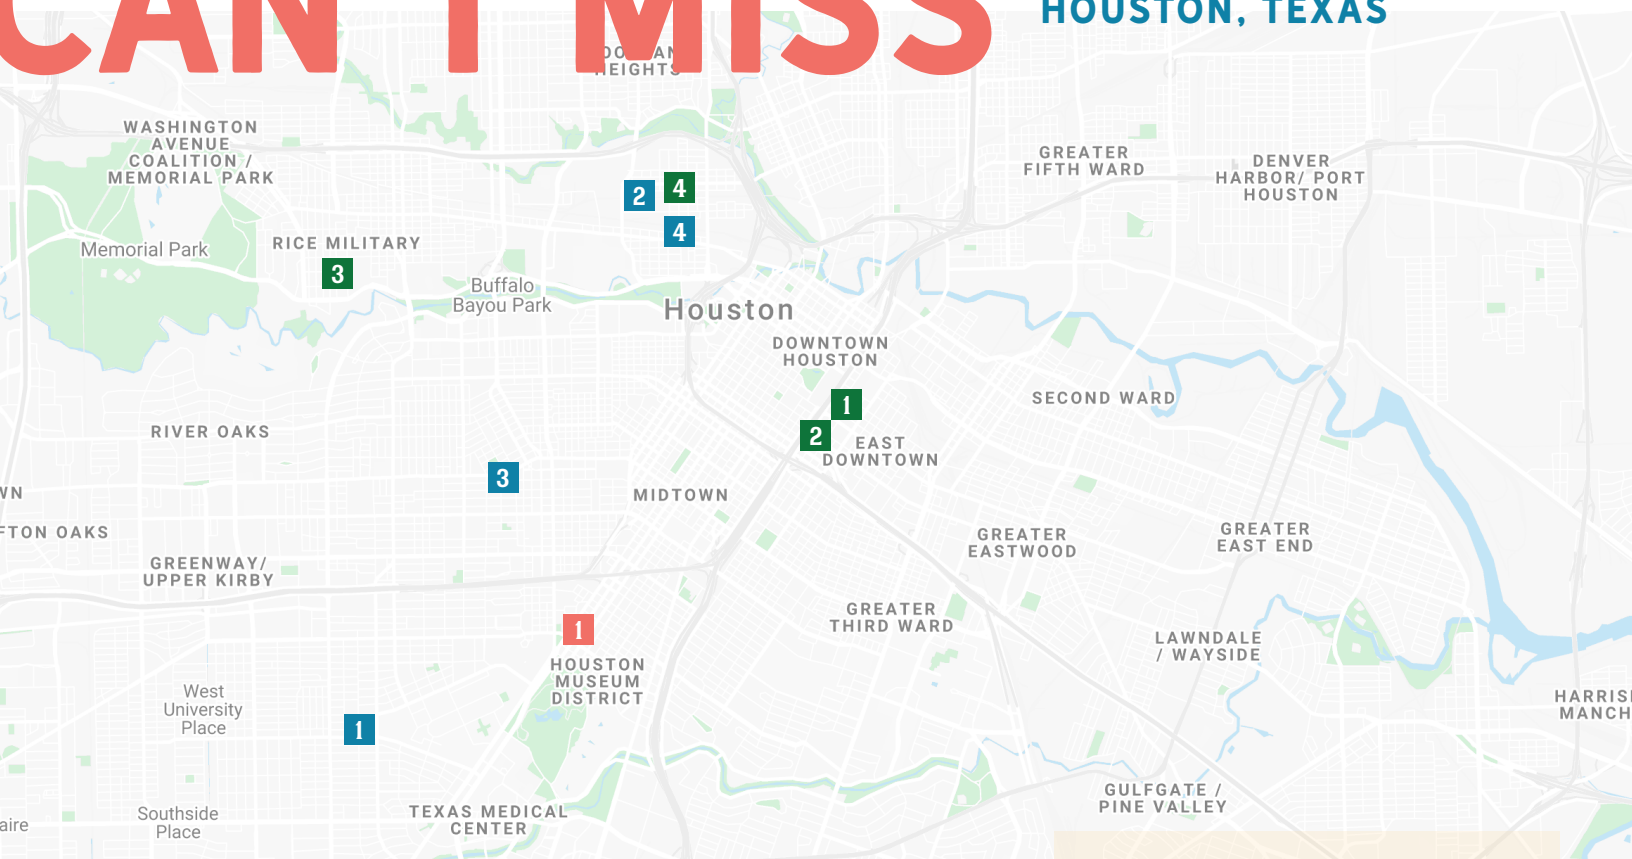

Street murals and graffiti are not lacking in the city — once you have an eye for street art, it seems to be everywhere and Houston is no exception. I honestly wasn't expecting to see so much but I was pleasantly surprised.

Thank you Houston for providing me with picture perfect photos to share with everyone!

MAYBE NEXT TIME

Here a handful of places I didn't make it to this time, but are definitely on the menu for my next visit.

Z on23

Cocktails and daily happy hours on a stylish rooftop terrace with lounge seating and city views

Clark's Oyster Bar

Fresh oysters and simple seafood

Waugh Drive Bat Colony

A great viewing spot to watch thousands of wild bats emerge from under the bridge at sunset

Art Car Museum

Museum of elaborately decorated cars and contemporary art constructed from scrap metal

James Turrell Twilight Epiphany Skyspace

Located at Rice University. Show begins 10 minutes prior to sunset each night.
